On 20 October 1689 the younger Thomas Tinsley secured a patent to 111 acr es in Rappahannock (later Essex) County on the south side of the riv er of the same name. It was upon these same 111 acres that he paid quit r ents in 1704. When they surveyed Thomas patent on the Rappahannock, his n eighbor was James Coghill.
The name of Thomas Tinsley appears in Essex County records from 1696 — wh en he would have been about 30 — to his death in 1715. He bought and so ld land, served on juries, inventoried the estate of neighbors, sued a ne ighbor, and administered the estate of Henry Arkill. A cobbler, Thomas tau ght the Arkill sons to make shoes. Thomas married Sarah Jackson, said to be the daughter of Isaac Jackson.
On 26 April 1704 this same Thomas Tinsley registered two patents to secu re 2,400 acres in Essex County. The land was at a fork of the Mattapo ni River. In 1708 Thomas sold 100 acres on Beverly Run to William Danie l. Beverly Run — a fork of the Mattaponi — forms the boundary between pres ent-day Caroline and King and Queen counties.
Via deeds of lease and release on 16 and 17 January 1712/13, Thomas and Sa rah sold 316 acres in St. Anne's Parish to William Kilpin of Middlesex Cou nty. Both Thomas and Sarah made their marks on the documents. Among the w itnesses was Thomas Jackson. John Tinsley, Thomas's posited brother, repre sented Sarah Tinsley in the transaction.
Thomas' 2,400-acre tract of land was the subject of a series of peculiar l and transactions. Thomas and Sarah would freely grant it to one or more in dividuals and they, in turn, would grant it to others. One couple in th is consortium was Robert George [1812] and his wife, Sarah (—) Elliot t, of Middlesex County. Robert left part of this land to his son, John Geo rge [906] of Caroline County.
Undoubtedly anticipating that he would not live long, Thomas Tinsley prepa red his will in Essex County 25 November 1715. He specifically identifi ed sons Thomas S. Tinsley [876.1] and Philip Tinsley [876.2], leaving th em a horse and a mare, respectively, and 82 acres of land. He left beques ts to other sons and daughters, each less than 20 years of age, without na ming them. To his will he appended his mark, as witnessed by James Jameso n, Samuel Bizwell, Thomas Jackson [1754.2], Thomas Dickinson, and James Co ghill — his Essex County neighbor since 1704.
His wife, Sarah, swore that it was his will 22 February 1715/16 and it w as so recorded. That same day, Sarah made a £100 bond.
Records regarding the Tinsleys are in Essex County until they created Caro line County in 1782. Records in these counties strongly indicate that oth er sons were David [876.3], Edward [876.4], Isaac [876.6], William [876.9], and Joshua [876.5]. They evidently had daughters Mary [876.7] and Ann [876.8].

Thomas Tinsley, emigrant and primogenitor of the Tinsley family in Americ a, was born circa 1618, in Yorkshire, England. Early research indicates th at he married Elizabeth Randolph.

Thomas Tinsley arrived in Jamestown, Virginia Colony, in 1638, his transp ortation furnished by John Robins of James City County. In early land docu ments his name is spelled variously by scribes and copyists as Thomas Tils ley (1638), Thomas Tilsey (1650), and Thomas Tinslie (1655). Before he own ed any land, Thomas Tinsley lived on a creek that was then known as Mos es Run. On February 7,1650 Philip Charles was granted 450 acres on the we st side of the Chickahominy River upon Moses Run and described as next abo ve Thomas Tinsley.

The first patent of land to Thomas Tinsley was issued December 13, 165 0, by Sir William Berkeley, colonial governor, for 300 acres upon Moses Ru n, on the west side of Chickahominy River in James City County, Virgini a. The grant was described as bounded west by north upon the Run; sou th by west upon the land of Mr. Theodore Moses; east by north upon Mr. Foy es land; and north by west upon the woods. The said land was granted un to Thomas Tinsley for paying the price of passage from England to the colo ny for emigrants Robert Arwin, Milliscent Thompson, Walter Villecott, Abra ham Watson, Thomas Sawyer, and Elin. Faning.

By 1662 Thomas Tinsley had bought 300 more acres of land from Martin Bake r, on the south side of the York

River in New Kent County. A patent was is sued to John Bowman on May 15, 1672, for 108 acres "on the North side of J ames River on the west side of Chickahominy river adjoining to Thomas Tins ley."

On February 28, 1689, Thomas Tinsley was involved in the remarking of h is land in St. Peter's Parish, and during the year helped "Cleere the road es in his prescinct...up the north Side of Totopotomoys Creeke."

Thomas Tinsley built his home on Totopotomoy Creek, formerly known as Mos es Run, twelve miles north of the present site of Richmond. This creek, en closing a peninsula in the present Hanover County, was named for Totopotom oy (d.1656), chief of the Pamunkey Indians and a successor to Powhatan. T he ancestral place of the Tinsley family, called "Totomoi," still remai ns in the possession of descendants.

Thomas Tinsley was an extensive planter. He shipped tobacco to England a nd imported domestic luxuries and clothing. Virginia history states th at he was a man of high esteem, great influence, and courage.

Thomas Tinsley took part in Bacon's Rebellion in 1676, the opening g un of the long struggle for American independence. One seat of disconte nt preceeding the rebellion was Blisland Parish, mother parish of St. Pete r's in James City and New Kent counties. Tinsley signed the Blisland Pari sh Grievances, dated April 2, 1677, a document listing a number of oppress ions of the British government under Sir William Berkeley that led to ther ebellion. The paper was presented to three royal commissioners sent from E ngland to the colony to investigate the armed revolt. Included in the com plaints were high taxes, Indian murders and depredations, exactions of she riffs, selling of strong drink during court days, and duties levied on shi ps. Signers of the grievances, distraught over having to obtain arms by a ny means, also made a plea for an arms magazine.

An attachment of 900 Ibs. of tobacco was granted against the estate of Tho mas Tinsley in Essex County, June 21, 1699, for his failure to appear in d efense of a court suit initiated by Robert Payne.

In his will, Thomas Tinsley left his eldest son Thomas Tinsley "one you ng Gray Stoned Colt branded TT." This brand, used by him in seventeenth-ce ntury Virginia, was one of the first in what is now the United States. H is use of this ownership mark was 100 years before burned brands supposed ly came into limited use in Virginia. One researcher on seventeenth-centu ry cattle in Virginia has made this statement: "Burned brands had come in to limited use by the end of the eighteenth century. George Washington bu rned "G.W." on his cattle, the position on the animal indicating the plant ation where they were pastured.

Thomas Tinsley followed the English custom of naming the first born son af ter the father, with this son inheriting the bulk of the estate.

His will is dated October 9, 1700, New Kent County, Virginia. Witnesses we re Richard Meriwether, Jeremyah Poupe, and John Oakes. It was record ed in 1702, in New Kent County, upon the corporal oaths of Nicholas Meriwe ther and John Oakes.

THOMAS JOHN TINSLEY = EMIGI PRIMOGENITOR OF THE TINSLEY FAM

Thomas TINSLEY (c. 1618 - 1702)
Thomas Tinsley, emigrant and primogenitor of the Tinsley family in America, was born circa 1618, in Yorkshire, England. Early research indicates that he married Elizabeth Randolph.
Thomas Tinsley arrived in Jamestown, Virginia Colony, in 1638, his transportation furnished by John Robins of James City County.(1) In early land documents his name is spelled variously by scribes and copyists as Thomas Tilsley (1638), Thomas Tilsey (1650), and Thomas Tinslie (1655).(2)
Before he owned any land, Thomas Tinsley lived on a creek that was then known as Moses Run. On February 7,1650 Philip Charles was granted 450 acres on the west side of the Chickahominy River upon Moses Run and described as next above Thomas Tinsley.(3)
The first patent of land to Thomas Tinsley was issued December 13, 1650, by Sir William Berkeley, colonial governor, for 300 acres upon Moses Run, on the west side of Chickahominy River in James City County, Virginia. The grant was described as bounded west by north upon the Run; south by west upon the land of Mr. Theodore Moses; east by north upon Mr. Foyes land; and north by west upon the woods. The said land was granted unto Thomas Tinsley for paying the price of passage from England to the colony for emigrants Robert Arwin, Milliscent Thompson, Walter Villecott, Abraham Watson, Thomas Sawyer, and Elin. Faning.(4)
By 1662 Thomas Tinsley had bought 300 more acres of land from Martin Baker, on the south side of the York River in New Kent County.(5) A patent was issued to John Bowman on May 15, 1672, for 108 acres "on the North side of James River on the west side of Chickahominy river adjoining to Thomas Tinsley."(6)
On February 28, 1689, Thomas Tinsley was involved in the remarking of his land in St. Peter's Parish, and during the year helped "Cleere the roades in his prescinct...up the north Side of Totopotomoys Creeke."(7)
Thomas Tinsley built his home on Totopotomoy Creek, formerly known as Moses Run, twelve miles north of the present site of Richmond. This creek, enclosing a peninsula in the present Hanover County, was named for Totopotomoy (d.1656), chief of the Pamunkey Indians and a successor to Powhatan. The ancestral place of the Tinsley family, called "Totomoi," still remains in the possession of descendants.(8)
The first westward expedition in 1669 of John Lederer, the German traveler and explorer, to find a passage through the Blue Ridge and Appalachian mountains, passed through the immediate vicinity where Thomas Tinsley lived. The narrative of the journey mentions Totopotomoy, who had been killed some thirteen years previously, and also describes the killing nearby of a wildcat:
"The next day falling into Marish grounds between Pemaeoncock [York River] and the head of the River Matapeneugh, the Heaviness of the way obliged me to cross Pemaeoncoek, where its North and South-branch (called Ackmick) joyn in one. In the Peninsula made by these two branches, a great Indian King called Tottopottoma was heretofore slain in Battel, fighting for the Christians against the Mahocks and Nahyssans, from whence it retains his name to this day. Travelling thorow the Woods, a Doe seized by a wild Cat crossed our way; the miserable creature being even spent and breathless with the burden and cruely of her rider, who having fastned on her shoulder, left not sucking out her bloud until she sunk under him; which one of the Indians perceiving, let fly a luckie Arrow, which piercing him thorow the belly, made him quit his prey already slain, and turn with a terrible grimas at us; but his strength and spirits falling him, we escaped his revenge, which had certainly ensued, were not his wound mortal. This creature is something bigger than our English fox, of a reddish-grey colour, and in figure every way agreeing with an ordinary Cat; fierce, ravenous and cunning."(9)

Thomas Tinsley was an extensive planter. He shipped tobacco to England and imported domestic luxuries and clothing.(10) Virginia history states that he was a man of high esteem, great influence, and courage.(11)

Thomas Tinsley took part in Bacon's Rebellion in 1676, the opening gun of the long struggle for American independence. One seat of discontent preceeding the rebellion was Blisland Parish, mother parish of St. Peter's in James City and New Kent counties. Tinsley signed the Blisland Parish Grievances, dated April 2, 1677, a document listing a number of oppressions of the British government under Sir William Berkeley that led to the rebellion. The paper was presented to three royal commissioners sent from England to the colony to investigate the armed revolt. Included in the complaints were high taxes, Indian murders and depredations, exactions of sheriffs, selling of strong drink during court days, and duties levied on ships. Signers of the grievances, distraught over having to obtain arms by any means, also made a plea for an arms magazine.(12)

An attachment of 900 Ibs. of tobacco was granted against the estate of Thomas Tinsley in Essex County, June 21, 1699, for his failure to appear in defense of a court suit initiated by Robert Payne.(13)

In his will, Thomas Tinsley left his eldest son Thomas Tinsley "one young Gray Stoned Colt branded TT."(14) This brand, used by him in seventeenth-century Virginia, was one of the first in what is now the United States. His use of this ownership mark was 100 years before burned brands supposedly came into limited use in Virginia. One researcher on seventeenth-century cattle in Virginia has made this statement: "Burned brands had come into limited use by the end of the eighteenth century. George Washington burned "G.W." on his cattle, the position on the animal indicating the plantation where they were pastured.(15)

Thomas Tinsley followed the English custom of naming the first born son after the father, with this son inheriting the bulk of the estate. His will is dated October 9, 1700, New Kent County, Virginia. Witnesses were Richard Meriwether, Jeremyah Poupe, and John Oakes. It was recorded in 1702, in New Kent County, upon the corporal oaths of Nicholas Meriwether and John Oakes.(18)

Golding - Observations and Notes

William Golding:

Earliest record found in Orange County, VA deed book 14, p. 264:

Wm. Golding to son Robert Golding for 20 lbs. Negro girl named Nan.

Memo: Robt Golding agreed to let his mother, Elizabeth Golding have use of the slave till her death.

In the same deed book, pp. 333-334:

Wm. Golding bought for 15 lbs., 150 A on Blue Run from Edward Williams and Sarah his wife. 22 Sept 1768.

Recorded in deed book 15, pp. 347-349:

Wm. Golding and Elizabeth his wife sold the above land to Francis Kirtley for 60 lbs. 25 April 1771.

This is the last transaction found the Orange County deed books for William Golding and wife Elizabeth.

Perhaps it is at this time that William Golding removed to South Carolina.

South Carolina Records:

Golding, William, Plat for 300 A in Craven Co., 15 Jan 1773.
Golding, William, Land Grant for 300 A in Craven Co., 31 Aug 1774.
Golding, William, Memorial for 300 A in Craven Co., 17 Feb 1775.

Golding, John, Plat for 250 A in Craven Co., 20 Dec 1772.

Golding, Richard, Plat for 250 A in Craven Co., 28 Dec 1771.
Golding, Richard, Land Grant for 250 A in Craven Co., 15 May 1772.
Golding, Richard, Memorial for 250 A on Saludy River, 1 July 1772.

This could be our William Golding and two of his sons. Richard appears to have migrated earliest. The land grants are located in the right area for where the Goldings settled.

Although Sarah Mills Norton, in Generations Back, puts William Golding in South Carolina after the Revolution, it appears from these land grants that he was here earlier.

No other deeds were found for William Golding in South Carolina, although it is evidenced by his will that he purchased 300 A on Little River from James Daniel and 200 A from Capt. John Caldwell.

William Golding's will was written 4 Sept 1777 and probated 23 Sept 1782. He names no wife. Six sons are named: John, Reuben, Anthony, Richard, William, and Robert. Four daughters are named: Mary Leonard, Milley Griffin, Sarah Foster, and Elizabeth Tinsley.

Sarah Mills Norton, in Generations Back, says that there was another son, James. William Golding does not name him in his will. She also believes that William Golding had two wives. Until I find proof of this, I will stay with the belief that there was one wife, named Elizabeth.

Perhaps Ms. Norton has confused the James who was a son of Anthony Golding by his first wife, Sarah McGill, with who she believes to be another son of William Golding.

Mary Golding:

Daughter of William Golding. Married Laughlin Leonard, son of Walter and Catherine Leonard.

In deed book 15, pp. 320-321, Orange Co., VA. 28 Mar 1771.

> Laughlin Leonard, son & heir of Walter Leonard and Mary his wife, and Catherine Leonard, relict of Walter Leonard, to Joseph Eddins 1,100 A on Rappidan River.

This deed was made at the right time for Mary and Laughlin Leonard to also move to South Carolina at the same time as her father and brothers.

The known children of Laughlin and Mary Leonard are: John, Golding, Nancy, Reubin, and Frances.

Mary Leonard is a heroine of the Revolution. In Feb, 1781 she alerted the patriots that the Tories, led by Col. William Cunningham were planning a surprise attack.

Laughlin Leonard was killed in Nov, 1781 at the "Massacre of Hays Station." After the slaughter, Mary Leonard and her faithful servant, Calami, walked three miles from their home and retrieved her husband's body. Together they brought him home and dug his grave.

Mary Golding Leonard married second Rev. John Cole, pastor of Bush River Baptist Church in Newberry Co., S.C. I have not determined if there were any children of this marriage, but tend to think not. Mary Leonard Cole does not name in her will any of the children named by Rev. John Cole in his will.

The will of Mary Leonard Cole was written 19 Feb 1832. It is interesting that she provided for the servant, Calami, who had shared with her the misery of that awful day in 1781. The will was probated 18 Jan 1837.

In 1938 a bronze tablet was placed in Bush River Baptist Church in memory of May Golding Leonard Cole.

Anthony Golding:

Born 1736-1750 in Orange Co., VA. Died 1801 in Laurens District, S.C. Married 1st, Sarah McGill, 2nd, in 1781 Isabella Reid (1749-1822), daughter of John Reid of County Antrim, Ireland.

Will dated 27 Dec 1800 names six children: Elizabeth, Rachel, John Reid, Anthony Foster, Thomas, and Permealeah Nancy.

These six children are supposed to be by 2nd marriage. There are supposed to be two children by 1st marriage, namely William and James. Their mother was Sarah McGill..

Newberry County, S.C. deed book D, p. 96 28 Dec 1799:

Jas. Golding & Wm. Golding, County of Laurens, District 96, State of S.C., grandsons & heirs of James. M. McGill, decd., to Gabriel H. Davis, state of VA, County of Fredricksburg for 100 lbs. VA currency, 207 A in Fredricks Co. on Hoggs Creek.

Newberry District, S.C., 10 Mar 1800:

My son Wm Golding, decd, having lately departed this life Intestate. This will be handed you by my son James Golding only full brother to the deceased, it is my request that Right of Administration be granted to said James Golding.

Anthony Golding

These two records do prove that there were at least two children born of Anthony Golding's marriage to Sarah McGill. For whatever reason, Anthony Golding did not name the surviving son, James, in his will.

POINT OF CONFUSION:

Will of James McGill; 96 District S.C., 8 Feb 1779:
Names three grandsons - James, William and Anthony.

Why is Anthony Golding named as a grandson if James is William's only full brother?

The Move of the Goldings to South Carolina

On 25 April 1771 William and Elizabeth Golding sold their 150 acre tract of land in Orange (now Greene) County to Francis Kirtley.[57] It is clear that William Golding did not leave for South Carolina until after the sale of this land in Orange (now Greene) County to Francis Kirtley. After disposing of his land in Virginia, he must have immediately loaded up his family and belongings for the trek south, since William Goulden applied in Charleston on 3 September 1771 for a 250 acre South Carolina land grant in Berkeley (now Newberry) County on a branch of Little River called Sandy Run.[58] Later that month, on 29 September 1771, William Golding applied for an additional land grant of 300 acres, which was described as being in Craven (now Newberry) County SC on waters of Long Lick Creek.[59] Figure 7 shows the approximate location of this land. The dividing line between the royal South Carolina "counties" of Berkeley and Craven was rather nebulous, since these entities were not organized and existed only on paper and were superseded in their upper regions by the organization of Ninety Six District in 1769. But from William Golding's will, it is clear that these two tracts of land were contiguous. The following year William Golding was granted the 550 acres of land that he had staked out and applied for in September 1771. William Golding resided on this land on Long Lick Creek of Little River in what soon was organized as part of Ninety Six District (now Newberry County) and was accompanied there or later joined by almost all of his ten children and their families as will be discussed further.

The following record proves that William Golding was still living as late as June 1781. In the "Accounts Audited" section of the Revolutionary War records located in the South Carolina Archives in Columbia is the following entry: "Received the 22^{d} June 1781 of William Golding ten Bushels of Indian Corn for the use of a detachment of state troops commanded by W. Hampton Lt. Col. 1st Reg^{t}".[60] Two additional entries in these same records read: "Received of John Golden thirty bushels of corn for the public use at this { ? } by order of Genl Pickens, given under my hand this 4th April 1782, Joseph Towles, Capt" and "John Golding made oath before me that his father Wm Golding dec^{d} & himself then living with his said father furnished all the above provisions & forage for public use as expressed in the different certificates for which no pay was received either by his said father Wm Golding dec^{d} or himself. Sworn to me 19th day of Sep^{t} 1785. Peter Freneau J.P."[61]

For those who care to, the above referenced records should provide enough basis for those who can prove descent from William Golding to apply for membership in the Daughters or Sons of the American Revolution for his patriotic service in supplying food in support of South Carolina state troops fighting for American independence from Great Britain. As several of his grandsons fought in combat on the patriot Whig side during the War for Independence, with some of them making the supreme sacrifice in the defense of their plantations from the ravishes of the British Army and their American Tory sympathizers, it can be positively assumed that old William Golding was a fervent Whig who had his sympathies solidly on the American side.

TIPS ON FILING A SUPPLEMENT

1. Order your own application paper FROM National.

2. If you are using another's application as reference, order a copy of that application.

3. Don't over document your findings.

4. Be sure to follow the rules of no highlighting, and remember to underline applicable information in red pencil.

5. Make sure your lineages match up, such as the "father" being old enough to be parent to the child named.

6. Place documentation inside by generations, such as one stack with a cover letter stating "Generation I", next stack "Generation 2" and so forth.

7. On the back of each piece of proof, enter your name, your chapter name, your ancestor's name your are using, the generation to which it applies and the date your are submitting the application.

8. Make sure your application is notarized. A lot of supplementals are sent in without a notary seal or stamp.

9. Remember to get your Registrar's signature on supplemental. Another common mistake.

10. Yes, you may send in your own private check, but make sure your chapter knows you did.

11. Don't forget to use Black Ink for signatures.

12. When supplying proofs, it is important that you copy everything. If you are sending a Bible Record,, make sure your copy the Title Page. If you are sending in Census Records, make sure you put page and E.D. number, and DATE of census.

13. Do not send photos of graves, etc. Instead, copy these pictures on a copying machine. As long as they can be read, it is sufficient. The photos will be destroyed at National. Keep in mind that you must put the name and location of the cemetery where photo is taken. If there is a listing that has been published on that cemetery, it is really best to copy that listing. It is considered "unbiased".

14. Be brief, and be correct. If you are sending in a history of your family that has been previously published, be sure to underline, in red, the information that applys to your ancestor.

15. Be patient. It isn't easy to be patient, but until some better system is adopted, it will take about 2 to 3 years to have your application approved. The better you arrange your application and follow basic rules, the quicker it will be approved.

Can't tell from your query in DAR/SAR pg 27 whether you are male or female.

I could assume male like Simmie Carter or female as most genealogical buffs fall into that category.

I am 80 years old and only recently have I spent much time on this subject.

I have a copy of William Golding's will as his daughter Sarah was the 2nd wife, and my direct ancestor, of Anthony Foster Jr who is buried at Cross Anchor, S.C. (will) 1805.

I have copies of the early wills except for Richard the Emigrant who died after 1681 in Chowan County, N.C.

He apparently left no will but numerous footprints, in the sands of time.

He left Gloucester, VA and property in the hands of older children for Albemarle [N.C.] District where he had a Crown appointment, on the council and title of Major, and served as Clerk of the Court.

If you tie into our lines, furnish Dr B.G. Foster, 1104 Dominik Dr, College Station TX 77843 with your genealogy as our Foster book is going to press within a year —

5 (FIVE) OCT FOSTER REUNIONS HAVE BEEN HELD IN CARTON TX AND THE SIXTH IS COMING UP IN 1910 - OCTOBER.

I AM HELPING DR B G. FOSTER ENLARGE NORMAN FOSTERS 1972 WILKES, CO N.C. BOOK ON OUR FAMILY.

I AM ENCOURAGING S.C. MCRISSICKS, CARLISLES, AND THOMSONS TO BRING THEIR FAMILY GENEALOGIES UP TO DATE.

NEW ENGLAND FOSTERS HAVE HAD TWO LARGE VOLUMES OUT SINCE 1899 (PEARCE).

ITS TIME WE VIRGINIA FOSTERS GOT OUT A RESPECTABLE FAMILY GENEALOGY.

JOSEPH FOSTER DIED IN EARLY 1900 AND WAS ENGLAND'S FOREMOST GENEALOGIST AND HIS PERSONAL FAMILY INTEREST LED HIM TO PUBLISH 10307 CS. HOWEVER HE HAD NO INTEREST IN AMERICAN COLONIALS AND SAID SO IN 1899 - AT THE TIME OF PEARCES ISSUE ON REGINALD THE 1638 NEW ENGLAND IMMIGRANT.

MY WIFE, ALSO A RICHARD (1635) DESCENDANT JOINED MAGNA CHARTA DAMES, IN 1957, THRU OUR FOSTER LINE.

VERY FEW NORTH AMERICANS HAVE THE FAMILY DOCUMENTATION THAT WE HAVE

Dear Ann,

I saw your ad in The Genealogical Helper concerning the Golding's (Golden). I am also working on Goldens for my husbands line. Here are a few tidbits I have on Golding of Laurens Co. S.C. (a) Lucy Golden b 2-14-1799 in Laurens Co. S.C. md Dec 22, 1816 to John Wood. Lucy the daughter of Reuben Golden & Margaret (Peggy) Griffin Golden.

(b) Laurens Co. Will book D-1-351 - 10-12-1816 Reuben Golding appraiser of estate of Meshack Overby. also listed as a purchaser of goods at sale along with G. Golding and others.

(c) 1807-1808 land borders on Widow Isabel Golding

(d) 1807-1808 - land borders on Anthony Golding Anthony Griffin & Widow Isabel Golding

(P) 1815. Richard Golding & Reuben Golding wit. for Jas Williams Tensley

(P) Maybe before I go on, I'll wait until I hear from you. You may have these records already. The books I have "Abstracts of Early Records of Laurens County South Carolina 1785–1820 with Name Index & Revolution War Service" compiled by Laura M. Nash. 1982. There are a great number of Goldens. My husband's line: Reuben Abraham Golden b. 1814/1815 S.C. md. Nancy Griffin b. Feb. 11, 1820 Anson Co. N.C. md. Dec 24, 1841 Talladega Co. Ala. In 1850 Benton Co. Ala. (now Calhoun Co.) census. 1860 Calhoun Co. Ala. Parents of Reuben & Nancy not known. Kin's ancestor Frances Jane b. Ca. 1848 md. Newton Williams in Tenn. Frances Jane living in Hill Co. Tex. 1880 census.

I really think Kin's line is from Laurens Co. I'll be glad to share any information I have if you send me the line you are working on.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Dear Melanie
Just rec your letter on the Golden family.
I think we are on the same line, but Ken's ancestor was Nancy Griffin who md. Reuben Abraham Golden. Reuben Abraham Golden b. ca 1813 S.C. md. Dec 24, 1841 Talladega Al. dau Nancy Griffin born Feb 11, 1820 Anson Co. N.C. Nancy died Aug 5, 1905 Whitney Tex. (Hill Co.). Found data from Cens. Census records show father, mother Parents born Miss. Their children: 1. Margaret Ann b. 1842 Benton Al. dau. md Joshua Cobb
(2) Felix b. ca. 1843 md. Arianna Boyd
(3) Sarah b. Oct. 7, 1846 Ala. d. Apr. 4, 1923 Hill Co. Tex. (4) William T. ca. 1845 Ala. (5) Frances Jane ca. 1848 md. Newton William

Dear Melanie,

Just a few lines to acknowledge the receipt of the material you sent and to make a few comments on your notes. I was disappointed not to meet you at TSDAR in Houston. I came home exhausted. I am State Credentials Chairman and the responsibility weighs heavily upon me especially when there is a vote. We never get to attend the meetings but, this time, for a change, we did get to attend the luncheons and nightly affairs. Our President General is a true delight! We registered 759 people + more who didn't register. 421 delegates!

According to one of his descendants JAMES GOLDING who married TEMPERANCE FOSTER is the son of ANTHONY by his first wife and his full name is supposed to be JAMES MAGILL GOLDING. Ms. Norton is in error on that point, I believe. A Miss RUTH SUGGS of Mississippi is a descendnant of JAMES & TEMPERANCE GOLDING.

It is my believe that between 1779 when JAMES MAGILL made his will naming WILLIAM, JAMES and ANTHONY as grandsons and heirs, and 1790 when ANTHONY FOSTER GOLDING was born that the original named Magill grandson, ANTHONY, died and another child was given that name. (That was done quite often then) That would explain why, by 1800 when the change of executorship occurs from ANTHONY GOLDING to his son JAMES GOLDING that JAMES GOLDING would be the only living full brother of WILLIAM, the deceased son("as a young gentleman"). I hope my difficulty with the phraseology of that sentence didn't hide my meaning!

It is amazing how many of WILLIAM GOLDING's daughters are attributed with the birth year of 1750. I have most often seen it attributed to ELIZABETH GOLDING TINSLEY but also with ELIZABETH and MARY. I have always doubted that year for ELIZABETH TINSLEY as it would seem to have been extremely difficult to have had FOUR sons old enough to have fought in the Revolution when only 31 years of age. I know that women started young but that seems a shade riduculous. They also joined the army at tender young ages but four boys under the age of 16 would have been most unusual.. as they apparently were involved in some of the heavy fighting and not just skirmishes as drummer boys.

The DAR corrected my papers for ANTHONY GOLDING when I submitted his birthdate as ca. 1736 and made it 1756 which would make him younger than his sisters. I look askance at that birth year.

WHERE did you encounter the information that JOHN GOLDING married SUSAN BROMFIELD? I have had a letter from someone who descends from this JOHN GOLDING and his birthdate is quite a bit earlier than that attributed to most of WILLIAM's children. I'll have to find the letter to find the date. It came the day before I departed for TSDAR and I had no time to do anything with it. I would be MOST interested in learning how JOHN GOLDING & SUSAN BROMFIELD's marriage was ascertained.

Certainly appreciate the excerpts from the Orange co. Deed Books. I found quite a bit of info in deed and will books but not the one about the slave from WILLIAM to ROBERT to ELIZABETH, Robert's mother. In our records we have attributed a ROBERT GOLDING to WILLIAM as his son and I see that you do, also. I am not quite comfortable with all of the info found in the NORTON book because a great deal of it is referenced to the CAMPBELL information which does have some errors in it. I know that it has helped all of us a great deal to use it as a stepping stone to gather info but I still would like to prove everything with records. What I desperately need is a COMPUTER! All of these many replies to my queries are coming in and I am so frustrated at not being able to have the imput and retreval ability to match folks up quickly enough.

I am hoping to drive to Continental Congress and do some research in South Carolina, Alabama and Virginia either coming or going. Depends upon my traveling companion--she was ill and couldn't attend State Conference. We are both supposed to attend the T.S.C.A.R. Conference in Houston this coming weekend and hope that we can spend some of the time mapping out our plans. I had planned this same type of trip last year when that traveling partner had to cancel and I certainly don't intend to travel to old cemeteries alone! I descend from JOHN REID GOLDING I who married CLEMENTINA BORWN and i want to go to her grave at the Jackson Street Cemetery in Athens, GA for a photo and to his in Fairforrest Cem. I have photos of JOHN REID GOLDING II AND III tombstones in Mississippi and arkansas. Do you know if anyone has an idea about where to look for the burial place of ANTHONY or ISABELLA REID GOLDING? Tombstones would probably been to old and worn to read. I've tried to locate the burial place of my Rev. Dr. JOHN BROWN with no success. He was another Rev. War ancestor who lived until 1842. I have copy of the LENGTHY funeral sermon for him but no idea of where he is interred. I also would like to go to the Bush River Bapt. Church and get a photo of the bronze plaque for MARY GOLDING LEONARD COLE.

I understand you have done some research in South Carolina. Can you suggest some records that I could look into that would not be a duplication of effort? Time will be short as there are so many places that I want to go but it would be a shame to cover the same material you had already covered.

Please be patient with me while I get my files all in order. One of the cousins is wanting to see if the GOLDING ASSOCIATION will buy a computer but I certainly wouldn't ask them to do so. I did NOT volunteer to be the "clearing house" for GOLDING info... I was drafted and under protest!!!. I must close. My 4-year-old granddaughter is ready for some attention after Gram disappeared for a week! She really isn't spoiled .....well not very much, anyway!!! I will try to compare out family sheets against the ones you send and send you notes on where we disagree...then we'll have to find the correct answers..which is which..

Sincerely,

Jimmie Ruth Eash

GRISHAM, GRESHAM, GRISSOM, GRISSUM, GRISON

The information on GRESHAM in Compendium of American Genealogy, Vol. III, p. 632, has too many gaps for this editor to believe it. John (I below) is given as the fourth generation of his family in Virginia. However, since it IS in print, it is probable that it would be accepted as established by the colonial patriotic societies.

The scrapbook of Sallie Norton Verner has a clipping (no date, no paper of publication, but evidently prepared by Mrs. E.L. Connally, see III-F-2 below) which states that John was of Hobbs Hold, now Tappahanock, on the Rappahanock River in Essex County and that he was the youngest of three brothers — William, George, John. It is not clear whether the brothers or their parents came from Wales. One brother went to sea and the other died in Braddock's defeat. John, living in Shadrack's death was 13 Jan. 1865 — killed by Rebels at his home when the war was almost over. He and a neighbor were killing hogs at what was called Campbell Spring at New Market, Ala., when the Rebels came for them. The neighbors escaped but Shadrack was to be taken to be killed. (Rebels in many sections did more harm than Union soldiers). As he was being taken to his death he begged to go by his house for tobacco. While there he managed to toss his small amount of money behind the fire's back log so his family could get it, later.

He was taken to Bailes (Bailey's?) Hill and shot. In part a 1972 letter from New Market continues: "The Goldens were very good civil people, believed in the constitution of the United States, and what it stands for. My children are the 5th generation of my family to live here," it states. "When Union Forces learned of the murder, they came in and forced the Rebels to give Shadrack Golden a decent burial. He is buried at the Bragg Cem., New Market, Ala. His tombstone reads: 'In memory of Shedrick Golden, born July 4, 1808 in the year of our Lord. On the 13 of January, 1865 he was taken off and murdered for maintaining the Union and Constitution of the United States'."

Queen honors Britons

LONDON — Two Nobel Prize laureates, novelist William Golding and biologist Aaron Klug, received knighthoods today, while other types of honors went to the man in charge of sweeping the streets around Parliament and Prince Charles' baggage master.

Golding

They were among 679 Britons whose works were rewarded by Queen Elizabeth II in the twice-yearly ritual.

Golding, who wrote the best-selling Lord of the Flies, won the 1983 Nobel Prize in literature, and Klug won the 1982 prize for molecular biology.
